

We are looking for new local board members

We are looking for new local Board Members to join our friendly and supportive group of Trustees. You will support and guide the work of the Maryhill Burgh Halls Trust. You will help the Trust to support the local community and to develop and preserve this very special building for the future.

We are currently looking for people who live or work in the local area (e.g. Maryhill, Ruchill, Summerston, Kelvindale, North Kelvinside). We welcome applications from all sections of the local community.

It is not an essential requirement, but we are particularly looking for experience of:

- Charity governance
- Management
- Legal
- Fundraising
- Building management and health and safety
- Heritage
- Community engagement

To apply please email a CV and a short (no more than 1 page) summary of your skills, experience and interest in the role.

Please email your application to info@mbht.org.uk and lornaf2604@hotmail.com

Please note that this post is voluntary, although reasonable expenses related to your duties as a trustee will be paid.

Board meetings are held quarterly, although attendance at additional meetings may be required. Meetings are currently being held online.
