Courses for Adults

Introduction to Songwriting

Everyone has a song in them! If you have ever had the urge to express yourself through song but don't know where to start, then this is the course for you!

Tutor Chiara Berardelli will look at the building blocks of songwriting, harmony, melody, rhythm, structure and, of course, the words. By the end of the day we will have explored where lyric ideas come from and how to develop them as well as covering simple chord theory and developing chord progressions. No previous musical or writing experience necessary, but if you do play an instrument, bring it along. We will have a keyboard and a guitar.

Cost: £30

Ages 16+

November 26

10 - 5pm

Creative Writing for Beginners & beyond

Improve your English skills, develop your self-confidence and relax through creativity, with Annette Allison. Taking Maryhill as our starting point, we will explore some local heritage for story setting, create our own characters to populate or search for real famous local characters. We will learn the basics of story and poem structure and have great fun with characterisation and voice. Getting our work out to an audience is also a joy of writing, so prepare yourself for your 3 minutes of fame! Classes are suitable for senior school pupils and adults of all ages.

Cost: £45

Ages 16+

Sat-Sun, October 29 & 30

10-4pm

How to Find us

Maryhill Burgh Halls, 10-24 Gairbraid Avenue, Glasgow G20 8YE

Maryhill Burgh Halls are located at the junction of Maryhill Road and Gairbraid Avenue, just across the road from Maryhill Library. The main entrance to the complex is via the archways leading to the entrance courtyard off Gairbraid Avenue, which we share with the Glasgow Life Maryhill Leisure Centre. Our entrance is on the right hand side of the courtyard - look for the wooden doors!

Getting Here

By Car: the postcode for the Maryhill Burgh Halls is G20 8YE. Gairbraid Avenue is closed to traffic, so turn off Maryhill Road at Kelvindale Road (junction opposite the modern police station), then turn right up Burnhouse Street, and you will find Gairbraid Avenue on the right. If you miss the turn-off at Burnhouse Street, or it's closed due to roadworks, the street is like a ladder - you can turn right at the next turn-off, then turn right and drive to the end of the street to find Gairbraid Avenue.

Free on street parking is usually available in the vicinity - although please note space outside the Halls itself is very tight, so please only park in the marked bays on Gairbraid Avenue. Six dedicated disabled spaces are available directly opposite the archway entrances.

By Bus: First Bus 60/60A/61 from Hope Street.

By Train: The nearest mainline station is Maryhill, situated about 20 minutes walk (1km, 0.6 miles) north of the Halls, straight along Maryhill Road. For more details, see www.scotrail.co.uk. Hillhead and St. Georges Cross Subway stations are also about 20 minutes walk to the south.
